HEXHAM DEANERY DIARY – JUNE 2019

BIG NEWS

The Deanery Pilgrimage is now well planned and ready to go this month – Friday 14 and Saturday 15. Starting from Greenhead we will walk to Holy Cross Haltwhistle for a Eucharist before tramping on to Henshaw All Hallows and Bellingham St Cuthbert, finishing in Haydon Bridge. Some are staying over at The Sill and there will be a time for time to relax together. On the Saturday we will call at Haydon Old Church, then move on to Newbrough St Peter, Fourstones St Aidan and finally to a worship event at Warden, St Michael and All Angels. Everyone is welcome, to join the pilgrimage for a long or short walk.

If you would like to know more please contact David on 01434 608882 or by email r.david.ratcliff@gmail.com. Spread the word!

IMPORTANT NEWS: The Deanery Synod planned for 12 June has been replaced by a meeting of the House of Laity, with Church Wardens and PCC Treasurers and Secretaries. The Meeting will be held at Holy Cross, Haltwhistle at 1915 that day.

Broken asunder!*

Saturday 1 June (Novena Day 2)

Throughout the period from Ascension Day to Pentecost we are observing a Novena of Prayer "Thy Kingdom Come".

We may like to make this ancient collect a shared prayer for each day:

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful people and kindle in us the flame of your love; send forth your Spirit and we shall be remade and you will renew the face of the earth. Amen.

The other prayers offered for each day of the Novena are from Canterbury Diocese.

O God of all creation before whom all the flowers of the field bow down, as with gratitude we recognise your provision and possibility for all on earth, clothe us in your humble beauty and draw us to the new simplicity that Jesus reveals within us. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Monday 3 June (Novena Day 4)

O God of all we are and have, in the face of oppression help us to release to you all that which holds us back to give up gladly all that we carry, not resisting, not refusing - even walking the second mile for the pure pleasure of seeing it go. In Jesus' name, Amen.

All clergy in our Deanery – both in post and retired. As we begin a new week pray for all whose work so often goes unseen and unnoticed – and yet is hugely necessary for our corporate well-being

Tuesday 4 June (Novena Day 5)

O God, who in Jesus gave us an example of how to embrace pain and opposition, as we enjoy both sun and rain from our common humanity help us to pray intently for the redeeming and blessing of our blue and green planet. In Jesus' name, Amen.
