

ClimateKeys

An evening of music, poetry and conversation about climate change solutions

To coincide with the start of the Climate Pilgrimage to the COP24 Climate Change Conference in Poland

"The single most powerful thing an individual can do about climate change is to talk about it."

George Marshall

St Augustine of Canterbury Church, Alston
Wednesday 3rd October, 7.30 p.m.

Including

- ♪ Acclaimed composer-pianist Lola Perrin playing "Optimism is a political act" (world premiere)
- ♪ Installation/soundscape by the Octopus Collective
- ♪ Poetry by our very own Josephine Dickinson
- ♪ Discussion led by Hazel Graham
Chief Executive at Cumbria Action for Sustainability

Free admission (donations welcome)
Refreshments – Bar

ClimateKeys
KEYBOARD CONVERSATIONS
ACROSS THE WORLD